

GE Area C2 outcome 2 rubric

C2 outcome 2: Recognize, describe, and interpret works of the human imagination or intellect in their cultural context, either subjectively or objectively

Criteria	Advanced -3	Proficient -2	Developing -1
Recognize works of the human imagination or intellect in their cultural context, either subjectively or objectively.	Student clearly identifies a work of the human imagination or intellect in the cultural context either subjectively or objectively and provides extensive details	Student identifies a work of the human imagination or intellect in the cultural context either subjectively or objectively and provides some details	Student does NOT identify a work of the human imagination or intellect in the cultural context either subjectively or objectively and does not provide details
Describe works of the human imagination or intellect in their cultural context, either subjectively or objectively.	Student describes the work of human imagination or intellect in a cultural context either subjectively or objectively with more than one example	Student describes the work of human imagination or intellect in a cultural context subjectively or objectively with one example	Student does NOT describe the work of human imagination or intellect in a cultural context either subjectively or objectively or provide one example
Interpret works of the human imagination or intellect in their cultural context, either subjectively or objectively.	Student interprets a work of the human imagination or intellect in its cultural context either subjectively or objectively indicating more than one example of symbolism or another appropriate aspect of interpretation	Students interpret a work of the human imagination or intellect in its cultural context either subjectively or objectively indicating one example of symbolism or other appropriate aspect of interpretation	Students do NOT interpret a work of the human imagination or intellect in its cultural context either subjectively or objectively indicating one example of appropriate interpretation